

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT,
IN AND FOR SANTA ROSA COUNTY, FLORIDA
IN RE: ESTATE OF LAURA D MCLEAN AKA LAURA MCCALL MCLEAN
Case No.: 2025 CP 260

NOTICE OF INTENT TO SUE – WARNING TO CEASE OBSTRUCTION OF PRO SE REPRESENTATION AND ALLOW PROBATE TO PROCEED

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as formal warning and demand that the probate proceedings for the Estate of Laura D McLean move forward immediately without further obstruction of my right to proceed pro se as the sole interested party. I reserve all rights to pursue legal action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and applicable Florida law should any further unlawful interference occur.

I. BACKGROUND & MATERIAL FACTS

On May 12, 2025, I filed a Petition for Formal Administration of the Estate of my mother, Laura McLean, with this Court. The case was accepted and docketed under Case No. 2025 CP 260(72025CP000260CPAXMX), confirming that my petition was facially valid and officially opened.

Upon filing, I was provided documentation referencing Florida Probate Rule 5.030(a), with handwritten annotations including the name Antoinette Witek, Probate Coordinator, demonstrating the Clerk's Office acknowledged my right as sole interested party to proceed without counsel. (See Exhibit D)

However, on May 27, 2025, I received an email from Judicial Assistant Tiffany N. Coulter improperly demanding I retain an attorney and asserting my petition was deficient. This directive was not administrative guidance but an unauthorized legal conclusion issued without statutory authority.(See Exhibits A, B which support these facts)

To date, no judicial order has dismissed or suspended my petition, nor has any controlling authority been cited overriding Fla. Prob. R. 5.030(a).

II. LEGAL BASIS FOR DEMAND

Your conduct constitutes:

Unauthorized Legal Advice by non-judicial personnel or personnel lacking judicial authority;

Unlawful Denial of Access to Courts under the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution and Article I, Section 21 of the Florida Constitution;

Violation of Clearly Established Law including Fla. Prob. R. 5.030(a) and precedent (In re Estate of Stodola, 924 So. 2d 986 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006));

Action Under Color of Law subject to liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

III. QUALIFIED IMMUNITY DOES NOT APPLY

Your actions were neither discretionary nor made in good-faith ambiguity. Under Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800 (1982), qualified immunity is unavailable for violations of clearly established constitutional rights, which your office had actual knowledge of, as evidenced by the 5.030(a) documentation and references to Ms. Witek. (Exhibit D, as preserved)

IV. DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION

This lawful notice and demand requires:

Cessation of all interference with my pro se representation as sole interested party;

Allowance of the probate matter to proceed without delay on unlawful, unconstitutional, and grounds lacking rebuttal when there is a duty to speak;

Provide confirmation that no further improper legal instructions or obstacles will be imposed.

Failure to comply with this demand will leave me no choice but to initiate litigation in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Florida seeking all available remedies, including:

Compensatory and punitive damages;

Injunctive relief to prevent further obstruction;

Attorneys' fees and costs.

This letter and its filing in the probate record serve as formal notice of my intent and reservation of rights to protect my constitutional and statutory claims.

V. CONCLUSION

I expect this probate matter to proceed without unlawful delay or obstruction. Consider this your final opportunity to correct course before formal legal action is initiated. The probate matter must proceed immediately and without further unlawful obstruction, concealment, or reliance on false authority. Continued silence where there exists a duty to correct the record will be treated as willful fraud under law.

Respectfully submitted,

Kevin B. McLean

Good morning,

I have received a copy of the documents that you have filed. You have filed the Petition for Administration pro se seeking that you be appointed PR. You must obtain an attorney for Formal Administrations. The attorney will also need to file an Amended Petition as the filed petition is deficient. Our Probate Coordinator, Antoinette Witek, has also relayed this to you via email but we have continued to receive pro se filings. Please obtain an attorney for us to move forward with this matter. Thank you!

Dear Ms. Witek and Clerk of Court,

Thank you for your response regarding my Petition for Administration. This reply is entered into the record to correct any administrative misunderstandings and to assert my rights unequivocally: The paper I received at the Probate Court Window where these filings were marked into record expressly states under Florida Probate Rule 5.030(a) the following:

This is in reference to the matter regarding the Petition for Administration I have filed.

I wish to reiterate that I am proceeding as the sole interested party in this matter — a fact that remains uncontested and un rebutted. As such, Florida Probate Rule 5.030(a) explicitly states:

"Every guardian and every personal representative, unless the personal representative remains the sole interested person, shall be represented by an attorney admitted to practice in Florida."

This exception is not discretionary. It is a clear, black-letter rule: a sole interested person may proceed without an attorney. There is no statute or lawful authority, either in the Florida Statutes or the United States Code, that compels representation under these facts. The courts of Florida have upheld this position — notably, the Fourth District Court of Appeal — affirming that sole interested persons may appear pro se in formal probate proceedings.

I therefore respectfully reject the assertion that counsel is required in my circumstance. Further, I remind all involved that the denial of access to the court on the basis of an internal policy or misunderstanding constitutes an act under color of law, which violates Article I, Section 21 of the Florida Constitution ("The courts shall be open to every person for redress of any injury") and the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

1. I am proceeding as a living man and real party in interest, not a corporate fiction. There is no provision in the Florida Probate Code or Florida Rules of Civil Procedure that expressly prohibits a natural person from filing for Formal Administration pro se. If such exists, please cite the precise statute, case law, or constitutional provision mandating representation by a member of the Bar in this matter.

2. Access to the Court is a protected constitutional right. Denying a living man or woman access to redress without compelled association with a licensed third-party intermediary (attorney) violates Article I, § 21 of the Florida Constitution:

"The courts shall be open to every person for redress of any injury, and justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay."

Further, forced representation without lawful justification may constitute a civil rights violation under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

3. You are hereby placed on notice: If the Clerk or Probate Division refuses to docket or allow this matter to proceed solely because I am not represented by an attorney, I will be:

- Filing a Motion to Compel Acceptance and Judicial Review of Pro Se Filing;
- Petitioning the presiding Probate Judge for a formal ruling on the record;
- Filing complaints with the Florida Inspector General, Florida Bar, and Judicial Qualifications Commission if improper legal advice is being issued by court staff;
- Initiating congressional and legislative inquiry into the matter if constitutional violations persist.

Additionally, I am preparing communications to:

- The Florida Attorney General's Office;
- The Governor's Legal Affairs Division;
- The U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Division;
- Relevant media and watchdog organizations documenting access-to-court violations and administrative overreach.

I hereby renew my request for a specific, written explanation of what elements of my petition are "deficient," and whether those deficiencies pertain to form, content, jurisdiction, or other grounds. I will submit an Amended Petition within 10 days of receiving a good faith, point-by-point accounting.

Additionally, to rebut point-for-point: there has been absolutely no email received at this address speaking to my filings in any manner, else it would have received proper and timely rebuttal just as this one has.

Furthermore, I must respectfully caution that the statement made — "You must obtain an attorney for Formal Administrations" — may be construed as unauthorized legal advice issued under color of official capacity, and without any disclaimer to the contrary. As you are aware, court personnel are prohibited from giving legal advice, and such statements carry potential liability and ethical concerns, particularly when they contradict the plain language of governing rules (see Florida Probate Rule 5.030(a)).

I am operating under full reservation of rights and explicitly do not consent to any forced legal representation, agency, or loss of standing.

Respectfully,

KEVIN B. MCLEAN
