Re: Estate of Laura Denise McLean — Case No. 572025CP000260CPAXMX

Dear Clerk of Court,

Please find enclosed the following documents for filing in the above-referenced estate:

- Verified Petition for Issuance of Letters of Administration (with Motion to Expedite)
- Verified Petition for Constructive Trust
- Motion to Enjoin Transfer or Encumbrance of Assets
- Proposed Orders for each of the above motions

Summary Statement

I am the eldest son and nominated Personal Representative of the Estate of Laura Denise McLean, deceased. The decedent died on May 31, 2023, under suspicious circumstances involving Jeffrey T. Stahler, who is currently charged with her wrongful death.

The estate includes property titled in Mr. Stahler's name at 4131 Diamond St, Pace, Florida, where my mother lived and contributed substantially for over five years. Under the Florida Slayer Statute (Fla. Stat. § 732.802) and equitable principles, Mr. Stahler is barred from benefiting from the estate.

These filings seek to:

- Expedite my appointment as Personal Representative to take immediate control of the estate;
- Impose a constructive trust on assets and property to prevent unjust enrichment;
- Enjoin Mr. Stahler and his agents from transferring or encumbering any estate-related assets to protect the estate and heirs from irreparable harm.

Time is of the essence due to the risk of asset dissipation. I ask the court to prioritize this matter accordingly.

Thank you for your prompt attention to these filings. Please contact me directly at the phone number or email above with any questions.

Respectfully,

Kevin Brady McLean
